The End Time Dimension of the Parables

The Harvest Principle

Recommended Reading: COL, pp. 62-69; Mark 4:26-29; Revelation 14:14-20

Our lesson today centers around the parable that is recorded in Mark 4:26-29. Though the parable is short, we shall find that it teaches profound lessons concerning the work of saving souls. It also illustrates the process of spiritual birth, growth and maturation in the Christian life. We shall also discover in this parable the principal reason why the Second Coming of Jesus has been so long delayed since 1844. Let's begin our study with the reason why Jesus told the parable in the first place.

1 Kings 20:35-40

³⁵And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said unto his neighbour in the word of the LORD, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man refused to smite him. ³⁶Then said he unto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall slay thee. And as soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and slew him. ³⁷Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, so that in smiting he wounded him. ³⁸So the prophet departed, and waited for the king, and disguised himself with ashes upon his face. ³⁹And as the king passed by, he cried unto the king: and he said, Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man unto me, and said, Keep this man: if by any means he be missing, then shall thy life be for his life, or else thou shalt pay a talent of silver. ⁴⁰And as thy servant was busy here and there, he was gone. And the king of Israel said unto him, So shall thy judgment be; thyself hast decided it.
