“The End Time Dimension of the Parables”

In this lesson, we will study about lambs among wolves. There are two senses in which the word ‘wolf’ is used in the Bible, one covert and the other overt. When one hears the howling of a wolf and sees its snarling mouth and sharp fangs there is no doubt about its main objective—to eat you! However, the Bible also uses the word ‘wolf’ to describe individuals who are wolves inside while on the outside they appear like sheep. The objective of these is also to destroy but they are more subtle and deceptive in accomplishing their objective. Jesus spoke about both kinds of Wolves.
